HEALTH AND BEAUTY SECRETS

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

V. J.: To keep the scalp clean, sweet and healthy it is necessary for many to shampoo once a week regularly. If your hair is inclined to be oily or if you encounter itching and dandruff, you should shampoo weekly. Soaps make the hair dry, hard and brittle—and cause streaks; don't use them, no matter how delicately perfumed or attractively colored. You can depend always upon canthox thoroughly cleansing your hair and scalp, removing all dandruff, oil and dust. It makes an abundance of searching yet bland lather. Dissolve a teaspoonful of canthox in a cup of hot water, pour the mixture on the head at a time, rub as you would with any shampoo; then rinse well. Your hair will dry quickly and evenly, and that it is easy to do, and it will be so light, bright and fluffy that it will seem as if you have twice as much as before your shampoo.

Mrs. K.: It is true your husband took you "for better or for worse," but I do not blame him for urging you to do something for your falling hair. A pretty bald woman is about the most unattractive sight I can imagine. You can postpone the "for worse" part if you will. The hair responds quickly to proper treatment. Use canthox for shampooing and rub into the scalp and hair roots with a firm, but gentle, touch. Then take a tablespoonful of quinine tonic, which you can make at home at little cost as follows: Get from your druggist one ounce of quinine, dissolve it in one-half pint of alcohol, then add one-half pint of water, and shake well. This inexpensive tonic feeds the follicles and gives the hair new strength and life. It prevents dandruff and itching scalp, and keeps the hair clean, soft and silky. Quinine will not change the color of the hair but it will lighten the natural color and give it lustre. It will stop your hair falling out when you comb it and will tend to make it grow in thick and long.

Blanche L.: To be sure, you are likely to get fatter during the winter months unless you take proper steps to prevent the accumulation of excess flesh. In fact, you are even more likely to stout for one of your heights. Get from your druggist four ounces of parafin and dissolve it in 1/2 pint of hot water. Then take a tablespoonful before each meal. This remedy is harmless and a rapid flesh reducer that will not make it necessary for you to half starve yourself to keep from getting too fat.

L. T.: No person's eyes will remain clear and bright under all conditions. If you are inclined to become dull, expressionless, red and inflamed when exposed to sun, dust or wind, you can easily remove the trouble by dropping one or two drops of crystals eye tonic in each eye. Make this tonic yourself. Just get an ounce of crystals from your druggist and dissolve it in a pint of warm water. That is all there is to this simple remedy, but it is so good that many have been able to dispense

Smokers Have a Kick Coming; New Cars Have No Open Platform

By T. G. Turner.

We, the smokers of El Paso, are mad! And where there is smoke there is fire, and fire is hot and, well—

We are mad—we the smokers of El Paso—at those new street cars, not because they are nice, ladylike street cars, comfortable and that, but because of a new smokers' regulation, or rather a new regulation for smokers. We repeat that we are angry, no, not angry, mad!

Where It Started.

Some months ago the council, in a fit of reformation, passed an ordinance prohibiting smokers smoking in closed street cars. The street car company did not pass the regulation, the city fathers—and other relations—did it for them. But that was all right, understand. Nobody really objected to that. We, the smokers of El Paso, still had the rear platform to smoke on and the open cars from stem to stern.

But with the arrival of the new pre-pay-as-you-enter, exact-change railroads of the United States amounted to $27,000,000. In 1908 these dividends amounted to $286,000,000, an increase of 400 percent in 10 years.

In 1909 the railroads earned $93,000,000 more net revenue than they did in 1908. In 1910 they earned $33,000,000 more net revenue than they did in the five corresponding months of the previous year.

An Injustice to the People.

The advanced freight rates demanded by the railroads, and now being considered by the interstate commerce commission, were agreed to by the combined railroads of the United States, and are therefore, clearly in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. I submit to you, gentlemen, the proposition that it is unwise and contrary to sound public policy for the federal government to permit these railroads to advance freight rates, and through their unlawful acts enormously to increase the cost of transportation to the American people. If the railroads are thus permitted to violate the federal laws with impunity, in broad daylight, and thereby increase their profits millions of dollars per annum, what incentive will any citizen have to resist law, when he can increase his income by breaking it?

We have passed beyond the stage where self-respecting public officials can barter and dicker and compromise with lawbreakers, rich or poor, high or low, great or small, on the theory that the rigid enforcement of law, without fear or favor, will injure business.

The relation of the federal government to these unlawful commercial organizations organized for purposes of spoils and plunder is one of the most humiliating and disgraceful chapters in American history. The plain duty and task set for this generation is to establish and forever the supremacy of law and its power to control organized corporations, firms or individuals who directly or indirectly form combinations in restraint of trade.

The unjust Judge Secord's opinion sometimes expressed that the official acts of a judge are too sacred to be criticized. No citizen of this republic occupies a more honorable and desirable position than a just judge who honors his office. But there is no more respectable citizen than the unjust judge who brings discredit and disgrace to the office that should be held sacred and used solely for the purpose of meting out justice to all kinds and classes of persons.

A judge belonging to the last named class is, and ought to be a proper subject for public criticism, and he ought to be publicly rebuked so that he could be forever after identified.

Governor Stubbs strongly opposed appointment or election of judges for a life term and declared that "the American people are being robbed every year of enough money by unlawful combinations, trusts and monopolies to build this entire work."

STUBBS GOES AFTER THE MAN HIGHER UP

Kansas Governor Attacks Trusts and Judges Who Absolve Them.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 13.—Governor W. R. Stubbs, of Kansas, made a sensational attack upon railroads and trusts, at the banquet of the Illinois Manufacturers' association. He declared that "the advanced freight rates demanded by the railroads were agreed to by the combined railroads and are therefore clearly in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law," and were unjustifiable.

The speaker condemned the judge who fines corporations for violations of law and "discharges the officers who get the money and are the real criminals in the case." He asserted that "the relation of the federal government to unlawful commercial institutions organized for purposes of spoils and plunder is one of the most humiliating and disgraceful chapters in American history." Governor Stubbs said in part:

Packing Trust Open Violation of the Law.

"Let us have the courage to tell the exact truth. It is well known, for instance, that within reasonable limits the packing house trust exercises arbitrary power to fix the purchase price of cattle, hogs and other livestock, and determine with absolute authority the profit which they will take as their share of the transaction. It is well known that the packing house trust was formed and is being operated in open and flagrant violation of moral and statutory laws."

The speaker said that the methods employed by the giant masters of finance who have destroyed the natural laws of supply and demand throughout the nation are in open and flagrant violation of the Sherman anti-trust laws, the plain provisions of our federal constitution, the common laws of our land, and all moral obligations imposed upon respectable citizens.

"In this connection the transportation question is perhaps the most important issue before the American people today. The Wall street financiers, through a 'community of interest' scheme have by indirect methods formed what practically amounts to a gigantic railroad trust, which controls the rates and policies of the most important railroad systems in the United States."

"The Northern Securities company, which was organized to consolidate the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Burlington railways, all competing lines, was declared illegal by the federal supreme court. James J. Hill, J. Pierpont Morgan and their associates proved themselves to be above the law and higher than the courts by proceeding immediately to destroy competition in railroad rates throughout the northwestern states by indirectly what the supreme court had decided was unlawful for the Northern Securities companies to do."

The railroad is a government agency, and is, therefore, supposed to be subject to law. It is a creature of government, but the creature has grown to such proportions of wealth and political power that provisions of law and decrees of courts have proved ineffective so far as they were intended to exercise direct control over the operation of these commercial giants.
